SATURDAY EVENING MASS After counting the votes, the decision is that mass remains at 6.30 pm. Thanks to everyone who cast their votes for this mass.

HELPERS MEETING A big thank you to all who have handed in the forms and if you are able to help in any way with some voluntary work please do fill in the form at the back of church. Tick whatever you can do. Please include your name, phone number and email. The more people that get involved, the greater we can spread the work load.

MINISTERS OF THE WORD AND HOLY COMMUNION INSPIRATIONAL DAY. At Scarborough on Saturday 14th September. The theme is 'Year of Faith – Where do we go from here?'. Would ministers wishing to go on this day please add your name to the list in the main porch of the Cathedral. Tick the box if you wish to travel on the coach from the Blue Bell. Please note the closing date to add your name to the list is Sunday 18th August.

COME ON PILGRIMAGE to celebrate the feast of the Assumption of Our Lady on Sunday 18th August at the Shrine of Mount Grace, Osmotherley. Begins at 2.30 pm with rosary followed by Mass at 3 pm. There is a coach which leaves the cathedral at 1.30 pm – adults £10 and children £5. Transport is available to get up to the Shrine. However, the Holy Day of Obligation is celebrated on Thursday 15th August. Mass times are 9.15 am and 7 pm. This has not transferred to the Sunday.

TEN PENCE BOWL Donations in July amounted to £198.62. The total to the Orphanage to date is £8575.82. Thank you for your generosity.

SIGN OF REVERENCE AT HOLY COMMUNION Canon Gerard will preach on this at all masses this weekend and there is also further information in the porch.
